

Board Cancels Tel. Remov'l; Plaza Asks For Land Trade

The village board, which airily voted at its last meeting to remove the phone from the Scout House and install it in the office of the Civil Defense Director, hastily reversed itself last night when a committee representing the Mother's Auxiliary of Boy Scout Troop 92 appeared at the village board meeting and protested the move.

Mrs. Lyons, representing the mothers, said the phone was needed in case any of the children were hurt, and so that children could call parents to let them know when transportation home was needed. Mayor Cunningham hastily assured the mothers that removal of the phone had been a thoughtless, ill-considered move, which he felt sure the board would reconsider. The board did, voting to leave the phone in the Scout House and have the phone company install a new phone in Mr. Dupre's office. Frederick Walpole, appearing as a representative of the shopping plaza at Broadway and Orchard, did not receive so warm a response as the Mothers' Auxiliary.

Mr. Walpole asked the village board to exchange the deed for a strip of land 40' x 367' (14,680 square feet) belonging to the village, for a deed to land owned by the plaza, 30' x 654' (19,620 sq. ft.).

The 40-foot piece owned by the village would be a portion of a 70-foot road entering the village parking lot from Orchard St. The village, at a board meeting in May of 1963, had agreed to give the Plaza a lease on this property. The 30-foot strip from Plaza property is a 30-foot wide roadway through the south edge of the Plaza, which would connect with a 30-foot road through the village parking lot, providing a roadway from Hillside to Broadway.

Mr. Walpole said that the village had agreed to give a perpetual lease on the 40-foot strip at the time of the Plaza's original request, in exchange for a like concession from the Plaza on the 30-foot strip. It now appears that such a lease would be illegal, as the village must advertise for bids on any lease longer than 20 years. As a result, Mr. Walpole asked for an exchange of titles.

Mayor Cunningham and Trustee Glenn vigorously opposed the request. Both said the original agreement confined use of the 40-foot strip to parking purposes. Mr. Walpole said no such provision was made at the board meeting which he attended. He understood, he said, that such a provision had been made at a later meeting, but that the Plaza promoters had not been notified of the change. In the meantime, a certified copy of the original minutes had been sent to prospective Plaza tenants.

When trustees protested that village property could not be "given away," Mr. Walpole pointed out that he was not asking for such a concession, but merely offering to trade a larger piece of Plaza property for the village property, and that the village had previously agreed to the trade on a perpetual lease basis. Attorney Jacobs pointed out that they had previously "given" Quaker Stretcher a street by vacating the street.

After considerable discussion, Mayor Cunningham appointed a committee of Ernest Glenn, Ray Toft, Einar Petersen and David Nissen to meet with Mr. Walpole and Village Attorney Ed Jacobs and try to iron out the difficulty.

In other business, Louis Place asked the board why Building Commissioner Ellis Storey had halted work Mr. Place was doing on a garage at 500 Lake St. It was explained that the original building permit was given for a smaller one-story building. Mr. Place said he changed his mind and decided to make it a four-car garage with a second story for storage. Mr. Storey said it appeared to be an apartment building. Mr. Place was instructed to consult with Mr. Storey before continuing work.

Ray Toft, chairman of the Police committee, reported that tickets for moving traffic violations had been issued to 31 motorists in June. Only three were issued in May.

Roger Williams reported that Father Henderson had complained of traffic problems caused by two-way traffic on Henry St. and asked that it be made a one-way street. The committee was advised to study the problem.

Ray Toft asked for authorization to hire an extra policeman to direct traffic on Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Lake and Main and at Lake and Broadway. Mayor Cunningham said he felt a traffic policeman should be on duty all day Saturday. In the discussion of traffic problems that followed, Attorney Jacobs was instructed to investigate the possibility of having Stop and Go lights installed at Lake and Main Sts.

The village board approved final plans for sewer and water lines on Route 83 to service the new apartment buildings of Lyn-Jay Builders.

Edgar Simonsen asked for and received permission to purchase a new lawn mower for use at the sewage plant. He announced that the U. S. Department of Health inspected the sewage disposal plant last week and said it was one of the finest in the country.

Ernest Glenn asked that the village engineer be instructed to begin work on plans to install storm sewers, curbs and base on Spafford St., preparatory for black-topping next year. The motion was approved and the engineer instructed to get state approval of plans for the work.

Sunday Activities Attract Crowds

Warm weather, sunny skies and the Fourth of July week-end brought hundreds out to the Antioch region and probably contributed to the success of the American Legion Carnival and the Lions Club Sunday afternoon chicken barbecue.

One of the booths at the carnival was closed by Police Chief Walter Scott. Chief Scott said the game involved gambling. Another booth was closed voluntarily by the carnival owner after Scott ordered the first one closed.

The Lions Club served 1300 chicken dinners Sunday afternoon, with both hungry carnival visitors and the fire department water fights supplying many customers.

Trophies to the first and second place teams in the water fights were presented by Miss Joan Tanner, Miss Lake Region Jaycees. First place trophy was accepted by Ken Umbdenstock, captain of the Countryside team, and second place trophy by Don Murphy, captain of the Wauconda team.

Teams from thirteen fire departments took part in the water fights, with Wauconda defeating Vernon; Barrington defeating Deerfield; Round Lake defeating Gurnee; Countryside winning over Long Grove; Lake Zurich beating Lake Villa, and Knollwood winning over Grayslake.

The host team does not take part in the match. However, Antioch filled in to battle with Fox Lake, team No. 13, and lost the match.

The Antioch team entertained the crowd between heats. "Deadeye" Boyd, on one nozzle, was pitted against "Speedy" Cunningham, with another nozzle. Other members of the team were "Monkey-bags" Olszewski, "Crazy-legs" Vos, "Tiger" Zitkus, "Laughing" Lubkeman and "Barrel-Shy" Van Patten.

The voice over the speaker was that of Bernie (Loudmouth) Gutowski, coach of the women's team and nozzlemaster of the men's team.

The women's teams followed the men's competition, with teams from Lake Villa, Round Lake, Fox Lake, Countryside and Antioch competing.

The Antioch ladies won the first heat from Round Lake. In the finals, Antioch was pitted against Countryside, and won the first two minutes, but lost the next two rounds, to finish second behind Countryside.

In lieu of trophies, John Hogan, representing the American Legion, gave chicken dinners to first and second place winners in the Ladies' Division.

Members of the Antioch Ladies team were Peggy Van Patten, Judy Lubkeman, Marie Vos, Arlene Olszewski and Shirley Gutowski, captain.

The parade route has not yet been determined, according to Mr. Horan. Tentative plans have the Shrine portion of the parade forming on west Lake St. and the Antioch section starting at Antioch High school, and falling in behind the Shrine section as it moves north from Harnden St. through the business district to the swimming pool, where chicken barbecue dinners will be served by the Lions Club.

The Shrine Day committee met Wednesday night to make further plans for the day's activities. Fred Walpole is chairman of Shrine Day; Roy Frasier, secretary; William Brook, treasurer; Howard Shepard, Public Relations; Thomas Haviland and Maynard Schneider, arrangements for food, and John Horan, parade marshal.

Dear Mr. Sorenson:

Due to considerable amount of discussion concerning the transportation of students to and from athletic events, I would like for you to be advised that it is my opinion that there is no authority in the law for a school board to use school buses to transport students or anyone else to and from ball games as spectators. Article 29 of the School Code indicates that the Legislature intends only to authorize the transportation of children to and from school. However, the courts have implied from this article that the school boards have a right to transport students to classes or courses which are a part of the school program, and this would include athletic teams, music contestants, cheer leaders, etc.

I think it necessarily follows that the Board has no right to transport spectator students and make a charge for such service for outside spectators. To do so would render the School District a carrier of passengers for hire, and it would thus become an insurer of the safety of the passengers. I believe serious damage suits could result, valid tax objections could be filed, and there is an indication from the State Superintendent of Schools office through their legal department that State funds

Joan Tanner Chosen '64 Jaycees Queen

Miss Joan Tanner, Miss Teresi Motors, was selected Queen of the Lake Region Jaycees before an audience of hundreds of people Saturday night at the village parking lot.

Norman Heyne introduced the five finalists in the Queen contest—Miss Tanner, Sonya Ellichok, Cindy Brenna, Carolyn Lasco and Betty Liddle. The five were selected from the original twelve contestants Friday night at the high school.

Miss Karen Sillanoff, 1963 Jaycees Queen, was also introduced.

Joan began her official duties the next day, as she presented trophies to winning teams in the Fire Department's water fights, and acted as 'hostess' for the Lions Club chicken barbecue.

The Jaycees will enter the '64 queen in the Lake County Fair Queen contest, to be held late in July. Should Miss Tanner win this contest she will be entered in the State Fair Queen Contest.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tanner of Antioch. She is 16 years old, 5'6½" tall and weighs 130 pounds. She will be a senior at Antioch High School next year. Her hobbies are Dramatics and Choir. Her talent act was a Dramatic Reading.

Judges in the Jaycees Beauty Contest were Mayor Murrill Cunningham, Ernest Westlund, Edgar Simonsen, Sheriff Charles Larson and Agnes Van Patten.

QUEEN JOAN TANNER, winner of the Jaycees Beauty Contest.

County Fair Queen Entries Due July 18

Girls who hope to be the Lake County Fair Queen for 1964 will have to enter before July 18.

The contest is open to girls between the ages of 16 and 21. The Queen will reign over the Fair from July 29 to August 2.

Prizes this year include a week's trip to the New York World's Fair for the Queen. Other prizes include watches, $25 gift certificates, charm bracelets and dinner for the queen and her court at the Country Squire Restaurant.

Final judging of the seven semi-finalists will take place about a week before the Fair. This year's queen is slated to appear at various local and state events, including the Illinois State Fair in August, and in the finals of the Illinois State Fair Queen Contest in January of 1965.

Miss Vivian Sauer, 1963 Lake County Fair Queen, will crown this year's winner at the fair.

Chamber To Protest Soo Line's Move

A committee from the Antioch Chamber of Commerce will appear at hearings of the Interstate Commerce Commission this month on the Soo Line's proposal to discontinue passenger train service to Antioch.

The Chamber protested the discontinuance in a letter to the Interstate Commerce Commission. Hearings are scheduled for July 15, in Waukesha, Wis., and July 20, in Superior, Wis.

The Chamber committee is composed of Fred Walpole, William Brook and John Romer. They will file a formal protest to the discontinuance of passenger service.

The Soo Line claims they are losing money on the service.

Chamber To Sponsor Shrine Day

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce has been officially designated sponsor of Shrine Day in Antioch on August 22.

The festive day, highlighted by a huge parade, is in honor of the potentate of Medinah Temple, William M. Weisenborn, a summer resident of Loon Lake near Antioch.

Many of the famous parade units of the Shriners will take part in the parade, joined by an Antioch section in which numerous Antioch organizations, clubs and businesses will take part. Some Antioch floats have already been entered, according to Parade Marshal John Horan.

The parade route has not yet been determined, according to Mr. Horan. Tentative plans have the Shrine portion of the parade forming on west Lake St. and the Antioch section starting at Antioch High school, and falling in behind the Shrine section as it moves north from Harnden St. through the business district to the swimming pool, where chicken barbecue dinners will be served by the Lions Club.

The Shrine Day committee met Wednesday night to make further plans for the day's activities. Fred Walpole is chairman of Shrine Day; Roy Frasier, secretary; William Brook, treasurer; Howard Shepard, Public Relations; Thomas Haviland and Maynard Schneider, arrangements for food, and John Horan, parade marshal.

Becomes Ordained Unity Minister

Mrs. Yvonne Steiner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Jensen, became an ordained minister at services held at United School of Christianity, Lee Summit, Mo., on June 16, 1964. Dr. and Mrs. Steiner, both Unity ministers, are now visiting Mrs. Steiner's parents in Antioch and will return to West Berlin, Germany, in September.

Rolls Car, Aided By Rescue Squad

Marilyn Bess, Antioch, 18 years old, was bruised and shaken up when the car she was driving rolled over at about 8 a.m. Monday, July 6, on Hte. 59 near Beach Grove Road.

Miss Bess was taken to the Antioch Clinic by the Rescue Squad. It was not known how she lost control of the car.

Miss Bess was a contestant in the Jaycee's Beauty contest. David Rogers, 12, suffered a possible concussion and was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital by the Rescue Squad Monday morning after he fell off his bike on South Main St. and struck his head on the pavement.

The Rescue Squad took Edward J. Hess, 75, of 7817 Greenfield, River Forest, to the Antioch Clinic, suffering from a possible broken leg after he fell at the Club Zebus on North Ave.

The Rescue Squad aided Edward Klawitter, about 60, of 194 Oakwood Drive after he suffered a possible heart attack.

From June 23 to July 3, the Squad had no calls. The first call to break the lull was a call to the Regal China Co. on July 2, where Georgia Marks, about 40, of Twin Lakes, Wis., had suffered from heat prostration. She was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital.

The squad took Lavita Green, 58, of 640 N. Main, Antioch, to Victory Memorial on July 3, suffering from abdominal pains.

Tom Hucker, 19, Box 343, Antioch, was taken to the clinic by the squad with arm lacerations after he dived in shallow water at Channel Lake.

Firemen had just finished the water fights on Sunday, July 5, when they were called to Route 83 and Grass Lake Road, where there was a fire in a 1963 Dodge owned by M. H. Kemnitz, 8053 N. Prospect Ave., Niles.

On July 6, firemen were called when a 1958 Chevrolet belonging to Harry Carlson caught fire on South Main St., resulting in about $150 worth of damage.

A.G.S. Changes Policy On Use Of School Bus

The Antioch Grade School Board, on advice from the school's attorney, Ted C. Larson, will discontinue granting use of its school buses to groups not directly connected with the school's program.

Below is a letter addressed to the President of the grade school board, Mr. Leslie Sorenson, in which the school's attorney gives his opinion governing the use of the school buses.

Very truly yours,

Ted C. Larson

Holiday Crowds In Antioch Cause No Trouble For Police

Police Chief Walter Scott reports that the village of Antioch enjoyed a remarkably accident-free Fourth of July weekend.

Despite the heavy traffic in the village, one fender-bender in the village parking lot was the sum total of accidents for the holiday weekend. One car backed into the fender of the other in the parking lot. No brawls, no burglaries—in fact, all the police had to do was try to cope with traffic that at times resulted in truly magnificent traffic jams.

It's Either Too Hot or Too Cold

The record heat of June 1964, will probably hold the title for hot weather for this month for a long time.

In the Antioch News of July 3, 1958, a news article stated the June's cold weather of that year had been good for oats but bad for the corn. It was 41 degrees on June 6 that year and the warmest day was 88 degrees on June 30.

Illinois' weather may be irksome at times, but it never gets monotonous.

Fire Dept. Has Eleven Calls In June

The Antioch Volunteer Fire Department had eleven calls in the month of June, and five in July up to July 6.

On June 29, a fire in the home of W. W. Trelevan, 116 Timber Lane, Oakwood Knolls, did about $2,000 worth of damage, according to Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen. The fire was in the utility room of the home.

The firemen extinguished a rubbish fire on the Charles Wertz property at Rt. 173 and Tiffany Road on June 4; and a grass fire on the Fred Dittmer property on Route 83 north of Antioch on June 14.

A fire in the wall of the Otis Resort on Grass Lake Road on June 9, caused by electrical wiring, did about $100 worth of damage.

Firemen extinguished a fire in the engine compartment of a Blue Bird bus on Route 173 at the Thielon gravel pit on June 17; the car of Sylvia Paydak was a total loss after a fire in the car at Route 173 and 45; a fire in the car of William Sargent at Route 173 and 59 did about $65 worth of damage.

A grass fire near the Zebak Club on North Ave. on June 19 was extinguished by firemen, and an electric pole caught fire from a grass fire on Route 83 north of Antioch on June 30.

Firemen spent about two hours on June 22 guarding a highline which was blown down on the road near the Mushroom Club on North Ave., until Public Service workmen could repair the line.

A grass fire on Bluff Lake Road on July 2 and a rubbish fire at the Don Francisco home at Bluff Lake the same day called out the fire department. On July 4, firemen put out a grass fire in Oak-

Short And Sweet

How many times lately, have you abandoned reading a news article because you got so tangled up in long, complicated names of organizations, bureaus, and committees that you found it too much effort to make sense out of what was written?

Most of the time, newspapers can manage to eliminate, shorten and condense much of this unnecessary, confusing extra verbiage. There are times when this is almost impossible.

The government is the worst offender in this respect, of course, but civic organizations seem to be following suit. The worst part of the whole thing is that many are highly incensed when newspapers shorten these unwieldy titles to save space and clarify the news item.

As a sample, here are a few bits from a recent news release: "Senate Committee on Government Operations; Senate Subcommittee on Intergovernmental Relation; Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations."

Perhaps the long, descriptive titles are supposed to be impressive. Is it necessary to cover every function of a bureau or organization in its title?

If the Public Works Departments around the country were newly established, someone, after long deliberation, would probably label them "Government Bureau for the Supervision, Investigation, and Maintenance of Public Sanitation Works, Health, Installations, etc."

This is one of the new "trends" we heartily detest. God bless NI-Gas.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

When the Republican Convention convenes next Monday in the Cow Palace in San Francisco, 1308 delegates and a like number of alternates, as well as some 12,000 Republican Party stalwarts fortunate enough to possess admission tickets, will converge to begin the deliberations for nominating Republican candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

Although not a delegate, I plan to be in attendance to witness the occasion and to confer with other Congressional and party leaders on political, platform and other subjects which enter into a great national convention.

In addition to the delegates from our 12th Congressional District (William H. Rentschler of Lake Forest and Max Wildman of Lake Bluff) and alternates (Howard Green of Deerfield and Theodore Wickman of McHenry), there will be many other Republican officeholders and party officials in the great convention hall of the Cow Palace. Max Wildman will be serving on the Committee on Rules which will report early in the session. Bill Rentschler will report on the Convention's permanent organization just preceding the keynote addresses by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Among the busiest persons on the Convention floor will be William C. Marlett, Jr., of Lake Forest, who has been appointed an assistant sergeant-at-arms, and Jerry Burke of Grayslake, son of Dr. and Mrs. Jerome Burke, who will be an honorary assistant sergeant-at-arms. They are among the fortunate young people who have been appointed by the Convention committee. Unfortunately, it was not possible to fill many other requests. Many sons and daughters of delegates and of Members of Congress are disappointed because they cannot serve as pages or in other capacities during the excitement on the Convention floor.

Of course, the entire proceedings will be televised from Monday through Friday of next week through the facilities of the television networks. As a consequence, the average American TV viewer will be well informed on the backgrounds of the candidates and the complexities of the great national issues.

The significance of the national conventions of the two major political parties cannot be overestimated. Both in the selection of Republican and Democratic candidates for the offices of President and Vice President, the event is of the greatest importance. Likewise, the tragic event of last November should remind all citizens that the selection of a Vice Presidential nominee can be of importance equal to that of the Presidential candidate.

While today the polls may indicate the popularity of one individual or another, it should be kept in mind that the votes will not be cast nor counted until November 3. Many changes can occur during the intervening months. However, it is certainly not the purpose of this report to encourage partisan support for a Republican candidate for President. It goes without saying, however, that the nominees which the convention selects will be the candidates with whom I will be campaigning when the dust has settled and the television cameras have been turned off in the Cow Palace in San Francisco.

For those who may wish to communicate with Illinois delegates at the Convention, the headquarters will be at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. Inasmuch as I will be the guest of my sister for the coming week, my address will be: c/o Mrs. Paul K. Lovegren, 1345 Francisco, San Francisco, California, phone TU 5-5305.

THE FAMILY'S RESPONSIBILITY IN TRAFFIC ACCIDENT PREVENTION

An automobile is a symbol of family activity and togetherness. Just think how many movements in your home, center around, even depend upon, your family car. Transportation to work, your wife and daughter on a shopping spree, Sunday picnics, fishing trips, etc.

Yet, the same automobile is a constant threat to your family's happiness and security. Statistical data indicates that many hundreds of children have lost at least one parent in an automobile accident in Lake County during the past several years. As a result, the family as a unit suffers most from the toll that our traffic accidents take. Many families lost their resources for an income and a respectable livelihood because Dad was killed or seriously injured in a car accident. In every instance where one parent was lost in a traffic accident the children suffer. They are deprived of their basic needs and robbed of the love and affection that both parents provide for them.

On the other hand the family, as a unit can also be the greatest single force in preventing and reducing the incidents of traffic accidents. You, the parents, by your training, your attitude toward safety can do more to make your children safe on our streets and highways. Family contribution to safety can be more effective than any governmental or educational agency. The family has a profound influence on the children who frequently imitate their parents. The father who is conscious of the effect of his driving habits may have a reassuring effect on his entire family. The mother who fully accepts her responsibility can in turn influence her husband to drive with care and her youngsters to walk and play with care.

The Lake County Safety Commission urges you to drive with care so that you or any member of your family do not become a statistical figure on our tabulation sheet. Study and observe the laws regulating speed limits whenever you drive. Have your motor checked at regular intervals for mechanical defects to insure happy and safe driving. Promote competent and courteous driving to guarantee the togetherness of your family for the future. Your life and the lives of those whom you love depend upon the recognition of your responsibility. Accept this challenge and fulfill your obligation, whenever you drive.

After the Sunday night closing-of-two-concessions at the carnival one wonders how the officials in charge distinguished which of the "games" are considered gambling and which are not. Observing the ultimate rewards for a "sporting" play at any game, it would seem to this writer that telephone calls from enraged parents whose teenagers were "stacked" with cigarettes soon became the deciding factor. John or Tom or Bill could "play" the same game and choose as his prize a large stuffed "Teddy Bear" for Suzy and he was just "playing a game," but if Harry selected cigarettes as his reward, he was gambling!

Letters to the Editor

"Bingo" Bill Murphy is looking better every day, so far as his much-publicized bill to legalize bingo and like games for civic and charitable organizations is concerned, in view of recent activities in Lake and McHenry counties.

What would the citizens of Lake County do without our omnipotent Lake County Bar Association?

A foolish citizen misunderstood and resented the use to which his tax money was put (building a courthouse without his vote) and filed suit to prevent it. The Lake County Bar Association with its superior understanding, realized the building of a courthouse by any means, was vastly more important than the right of referendum, so it petitioned the Supreme Court to prohibit this suit—and all like suits.

Certainly, the courts are for the citizens' grievances. However, the Lake County Bar Association is, unlike ordinary citizens, qualified to judge which are real and which are imaginary grievances. There is no reason to waste the valuable time of our courts and our judges on suits which the Bar Association does not approve.

As to judges, again the Lake County Bar Association has preferred its seasoned judgment on the selection of a candidate for Circuit Court Judge. Ordinary citizens are apt to allow themselves to be swayed in their choice by narrow partisan politics. The Lake County Bar Association has, by polled vote, decided on a coalition candidate for the precinct committee, Democratic and Republican, to choose by unanimous approval for an uncontested place on the November ballot.

Aren't we lucky in Lake County! Our Bar Association, instead of concerning itself with the adequate preparation of its membership with the adequate preparation and the ethical practices of its membership (which most professional organizations consider their primary functions) is willing to devote the major portion of its time to educating the citizens of Lake County as to what suits should sit on the bench to hear them.

THE LAST DROP: Houdini had nothing on the fellows who ran the Franklin Pantry (the lunch counter in the Ben Franklin), they pulled out lock, stock and root-beer barrels on Monday before any of us knew what was happening. . . . about three weeks behind schedule, they finally drove the pilings for the new A. & P. store this week. . . . and the owner of the present building they occupy still claims there is no evidence yet that they are moving. . . . somebody is kidding somebody, methinks. . . . Now the latest rumor is that the First National Bank will occupy the space vacated by the State Bank when it moves, while some folks are still claiming the 1st National will move into the S. & L. Bldg. . . . and in the meantime Main Street continues to grasp at straws to rebuild on!

DID YOU HEAR? At a recent wedding reception the bride appeared on the stairs and tossed the groom's bag of golf clubs into the eagerly outstretched hands of the men in the party.

By Pearl Kapell
"Bingo" Bill Murphy is looking better every day, so far as his much-publicized bill to legalize bingo and like games for civic and charitable organizations is concerned, in view of recent activities in Lake and McHenry counties.

What would the citizens of Lake County do without our omnipotent Lake County Bar Association?

A foolish citizen misunderstood and resented the use to which his tax money was put (building a courthouse without his vote) and filed suit to prevent it. The Lake County Bar Association with its superior understanding, realized the building of a courthouse by any means, was vastly more important than the right of referendum, so it petitioned the Supreme Court to prohibit this suit—and all like suits.

Certainly, the courts are for the citizens' grievances. However, the Lake County Bar Association is, unlike ordinary citizens, qualified to judge which are real and which are imaginary grievances. There is no reason to waste the valuable time of our courts and our judges on suits which the Bar Association does not approve.

As to judges, again the Lake County Bar Association has preferred its seasoned judgment on the selection of a candidate for Circuit Court Judge. Ordinary citizens are apt to allow themselves to be swayed in their choice by narrow partisan politics. The Lake County Bar Association has, by polled vote, decided on a coalition candidate for the precinct committee, Democratic and Republican, to choose by unanimous approval for an uncontested place on the November ballot.

Aren't we lucky in Lake County! Our Bar Association, instead of concerning itself with the adequate preparation of its membership with the adequate preparation and the ethical practices of its membership (which most professional organizations consider their primary functions) is willing to devote the major portion of its time to educating the citizens of Lake County as to what suits should sit on the bench to hear them.

THE LAST DROP: Houdini had nothing on the fellows who ran the Franklin Pantry (the lunch counter in the Ben Franklin), they pulled out lock, stock and root-beer barrels on Monday before any of us knew what was happening. . . . about three weeks behind schedule, they finally drove the pilings for the new A. & P. store this week. . . . and the owner of the present building they occupy still claims there is no evidence yet that they are moving. . . . somebody is kidding somebody, methinks. . . . Now the latest rumor is that the First National Bank will occupy the space vacated by the State Bank when it moves, while some folks are still claiming the 1st National will move into the S. & L. Bldg. . . . and in the meantime Main Street continues to grasp at straws to rebuild on!

DID YOU HEAR? At a recent wedding reception the bride appeared on the stairs and tossed the groom's bag of golf clubs into the eagerly outstretched hands of the men in the party.

The Crime Commission's disclosures show what everybody already knew—that there's plenty of commercial, organized gambling going on in the meantime, civic organizations which run a Bingo game occasionally are closed down tighter than a drum by zealous police raids. State police, at that.

Stopping people from gambling apparently works out as well as did stopping them from drinking. It stops those few people who would only indulge moderately, anyway.

It's rather strange, though, that the police have no trouble finding all the obscure little Bingo games, but have not the faintest notion where the organized gambling is located. Could it be that policemen never talk to their neighbors?

Now that you've given up smoking because it may cause cancer, you'll have to give up eating charcoal-broiled steaks.

A doctor has come up with the good news that cancer-causing chemicals have been found in charcoal-broiled steaks. No proof, however, as to what it does when it gets in your stomach. The cancer-causing chemical, incidentally, is supposed to be from the burning fat dripping on the charcoal.

Presumably, the safest way is to quit eating and smoking. Oh, yes, you'll have to quit.

Case of The Bargaining Dealers

When you trade in your used car on a new one, it is often the case that the dealer's work has only begun in the arduous business of disposing of your used model at a price that will leave him a profit on the whole transaction.

As sometimes happens, due to lack of storage space, or because he has too many of this particular model, or other reasons, a dealer must wholesale a used car to another dealer.

When this happens as might be imagined, quite a bit of price bargaining goes on between buyer and seller, sometimes with a very humorous twist.

This was the case recently when two dealers ended up arguing over a windshield with a pinhole in it that the buying dealer thought should be good for $50.00 off the price.

"Come off it now," said the selling dealer. "You KNOW you wouldn't replace that windshield!"

The buyer kept insisting he would and finally won out on the deal. The sale agreed upon, the selling dealer then treated the buyer to a coke from a nearby cooler.

With the papers all signed and the transfer of titles completed, the selling dealer finished his drink and walked over to the windshield to examine it more closely.

"It seems a shame," he said, "on account of such a little flaw. But since you're going to replace it anyway . . ." and he swung his empty bottle at the windshield and smashed it completely.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

Clean living and boyish charm continue to pay off handsomely for Judge Thomas J. Moran who gobbled up the endorsement of Lake County delegates to the Appellate Court convention and thus insured his nomination for the judicial post.

The nomination is another chapter in one of the most amazing political stories in Lake County history, a story that probably won't be completed until the Waukegan jurist finally takes his place on the Federal bench, a goal to which he has long aspired.

The luck of the Irish has played no small part in Judge Moran's spectacular career since he was able to escape the political graveyard that the State's Attorney's office has become before he fell under its hex.

The shift from State's Attorney to Probate Judge was just temporary lasting only until the death of Circuit Judge Sidney H. Block created a vacancy on the Circuit bench which the jolly jurist promptly filled.

Long before the Illinois General Assembly passed legislation implementing the blue ballot judicial amendment Judge Moran was studying the possibilities that might open up and settled on the Appellate bench as the next step in his career.

Judge Moran began lining up support in the 13 county Appellate districts almost before the ink was dry on the bill creating it and he also let it be known to the Illinois Supreme Court that he was available for appointment to the bench as of January 1.

The appointment to the Appellate Court paved the way for his nomination and almost certain election in November.

While it is true that there has been a substantial element of luck involved in Judge Moran's steady climb it is also true that he has shown considerable ability to take advantage of an opportunity when it has arisen.

Cameramen from WGN-TV were in Lake County recently filming background for a documentary film on the county and among the points of interest was the Lake County courthouse.

The television crew also found the old swimming hole next to the courthouse interesting, but rejected a suggestion that would have made the film even more notable.

A suggestion was made that female employees of the courthouse be scattered about the excavation in bathing suits and sun suits with beach umbrellas and cabanas as part of the background.

Ward Lear's summer job is driving a paper route in Southern Wisconsin for the Anderson News Agency, out of Burlington. No trouble finding work—he's held this job for six years during the summer months.

"It works out fine," Ward says. "This is their busy season. They don't need me after school starts."

Ward starts his route at 5:30 a.m. weekdays, Saturday at 2 a.m. and Sunday at 3 a.m. Roy Nelson works with him on weekends.

Would he like to see the year extended to 11 or 12 months, so that teachers wouldn't have to seek summer employment? "I don't think so," Ward says. "I like the change of pace. A teacher needs it, to do a good job."

Most of the teachers, Ward says, choose to be paid on a 12-month basis. This way their income is regular. It's usually those just starting teaching who are forced by small salaries to take their pay in 6 months and depend on finding a summer job for a living.

Bruce Stahmer is working at Shoes by George in Antioch for the summer. This is his first summer at this job. He likes it. One summer he worked in a factory. "That was rough," he says.

Bruce is reluctant to see initiation of year round schools, too.

"I think it will come, eventually," he said. "It's the sensible thing. That's a big investment to let kids three months, or in partial use for summer school. But it's going to create a lot of problems that will have to be solved."

"For example," Bruce said, "many teachers need those three months to go back to school to work for a Master's Degree, or for refresher courses. And the schools would have to be air-conditioned."

"I'd like to see the twelve-month, or 11-month school year started on a voluntary basis, to start," Bruce said. "I think most teachers need that time away from teaching to do a good job."

"I'd really like to find a summer job in my field, so that I'd be learning something and using the knowledge I have," he said. "A job with the Conservation Dept., or Abbott's Laboratories, or something like that." (Bruce teaches Biology and General Science.)

Jim Corrigan is summer director of the Antioch Aqua Center. It's his third summer at the job. He's program manager, he says, chief custodian, maintenance engineer, bounce and public relations man, to mention a few of his chores.

"I like this job," he says. "It's so diversified. Just one thing I wish—that parents would teach their children neatness. I spend hours every day just picking up, cleaning up messes here."

Mr. Corrigan professes the present school schedule, too. "Teachers need that time," he said, "to take courses, and for a change of pace. They need to keep fresh."

Roger Andrews was unavailable for an interview. He was on top of a house in the 60 degrees plus heat, driving nails into boards. (He's working for Cal Haddon on the Hardens' new home on 1st Avenue.) I asked him if he preferred that job to summer teaching. "You bet," he called back happily. "It's easier to fight these nails than kids."

Several of the teachers have turned to carpentry for the summer. Richard Olson is doing remodeling on his own. Melvin Stillson does repair work at the high school and installs some new wood projects.

Adrian Mueller is working at Quaker Stretcher. Lee Mleure is doing construction work. So is Bill Seemann, working for George Kennedy Co.

Ann Robinson is at MacGregor's Bay, Canada, working in a store on a nearby island.

Mr. and Mrs. Gudgeville are at their home in Booneville, Ind.

Richard Weinberg is traveling. Mary Baehler is working at Lakeland, near Lake Geneva.

The Donald Kraemers are moving into their new home at 591 Highland.

Joseph Rush will be at summer Music Camp with Antioch students, and is giving private lessons.

Elmo Edwards is traveling. Bernice Fosmark is working in Niles as a purchasing agent for an industry, and plans to attend the World's fair.

Mrs. Jeanette Tulomello is in Canada. Dennis Sullivan is working at Goldblatt's in Waukegan.

Doug Risberg is a police officer in Deerfield.

Elizabeth Kitchell, Dean of Girls, has left Antioch High School. She is now assistant professor of the New Jersey State School of Conservation in Stokes State Forest at Branchville, New Jersey.

The secretaries at the high school pursue their jobs right through the summer months. So does Mr. Dittman and Mr. Polley, superintendent and assistant superintendent.

Miss Wanda Beitzell of Salem, Wisconsin, but formerly of Antioch, recently took 3rd place in the Blind Bowling Tournament, held in Green Bay, Wisconsin. This tournament was divided into several classifications—there were "doubles" entries in the partially blind competition, and single entries.

Miss Wanda Beitzell, totally blind since birth, was entered in the totally blind competition, with a Miss Alice Brochu from Green Bay.

They topped third place in the doubles event with a 1012 count, just two pins behind the second place efforts of John Franco and John Wells, both of Racine. Approximately 80 partially and totally blind men and women participated in this tournament.

If they cook it, the women seem to think it's not fattening.

Laughter & Music Next On Menu At PM&L Theater

"Guys and Dolls," the musical comedy taken from Damon Runyon's tales of toughs, touts and tramps on Broadway, is next on the stage of the PM&L Theater in Antioch.

The play will be shown July 31, August 1, August 7 and 8. The theater, by the way, is air-conditioned.

Dr. Al Bucar and Dee D'Isa will play two of the leading roles—Al as Nathan Detroit, the harassed operator of a floating crap game and Dee as Adelaide, his "doll," who has been engaged to him for 14 years. She has developed a permanent psychosomatic cold in 14 years of trying to get "a plain little band of gold" from him.

Polson's Combine Re-Union, Vacation

Ronni and Jerri Polson and son, Mark, leave Wednesday, July 8, to attend the annual reunion of the famous Fighting 264th Field Artillery Battalion.

This marks the 20th anniversary of the landing on Utah Beach of this highly decorated unit and members from all over the United States will gather on Long Island July 11th and 12th in commemoration of the event. It is probable that the 1965 reunion of the 264th will be held in Illinois, and possibly at Antioch.

While in New York, Jerri's sister, Mrs. Karl Thurber, will be visited and a day or two at the fair is planned. A visit to the Statue of Liberty is also a must for it was 25 years ago this October that Ronni and Jerri spent their honeymoon in New York and while climbing to the top of Miss Liberty they inscribed their names and the date on the wall of the statue as is the custom. Can the inscription still be there, after 25 years? Oddly enough, 25 years ago, there was also a World's Fair going on at New York.

He had been very ill for many days—following the surgery, but is slowly recovering his strength now. Mrs. Sreh received a large pot of seeded dahlias and would like very much to thank the donor for the gift, if this thoughtful person would just reveal his (or her) identity.

Others who will portray the pungent characters from Damon Runyon's stories about deadbeats and sharpers of the Great White Way are Ken Smouse, Bob Oddsden, Don Beveroth, Arnold Schunleister and Bob Thomley.

Josef Hunley is drama director of the PM&L's production; George Olsar, musical director; Lucille Evanoff, dance director and Ken Smouse is in charge of general direction.

Army Starts Physicals For 18-Year-Olds

Illinois Selective Service local boards will begin in July to order 18-year-old registrants for complete examination by the Armed Forces, John H. Hammack, State Director of Selective Service said today.

He emphasized that the examination of 18-year-olds does NOT mean that they face induction in the immediate future.

The examination of 18-year-olds who are out of school and not deferred for other reasons initiates a program announced by President Johnson on January 5, 1964. The early examination of 18-year-olds was directed after a presidential study determined that large numbers of young men being found disqualified for military service were interested in obtaining educational, vocational, and medical rehabilitation.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Deitrick and daughter, Sue, of Walnut Creek, California, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olsen and other friends and relatives in Antioch. The Deitricks are former residents of Antioch.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Nuzzi and sons, Tom and Kenneth, of Washington, D. C., spent last week with Mrs. Nuzzi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ernst, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gaston.

The President pointed out that early examination will enable those who are qualified for military service to plan intelligently their future careers in this respect. It will enable those found unqualified to get to work promptly on the education, training or health services which can be of benefit to them. He also noted that early examination will NOT mean early induction. There will be no change in the present practice of calling older registrants for actual induction into the Armed Forces before younger ones are called.

At present men are being reached for induction between 21½ and 22, as a national average. In Illinois the average age of involuntary induction is about 21 to 22.

State Sponsors Auto Mechanics Training

The first certificate of registration issued by the federal government for a state-sponsored apprenticeship training program for automotive mechanics and body and fender repairmen has been received in Springfield by Miss Maude Myers, director of the Illinois Department of Personnel, for Gov. Kerner, who was out of the city.

"Illinois is a pioneer in sponsoring a training program for automotive mechanic apprentices worked out through agreement between a state government and the federal government. No other state has yet put such a program into effect," said Raymond W. Davis, representative of the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, U. S. Department of Labor, who made the presentation.

Apprentices are paid on a progressively increasing scale of wages stipulated in the bargaining agreement, starting at 55 per cent of the prevailing local journeyman wage rate. Every six months those who have successfully completed their training to date will receive a percentage wage increase.

New Concept To Problems Of Retarded

New approaches to the care of the mentally retarded were outlined in a conference at Dixon State School recently. The conference was attended by Arthur G. Baker, Director of the Lake County Health Dept., and Robert Kellogg, R. N., Director of Nursing Services.

The two State Schools at Lincoln and Dixon are severely overcrowded, caring for about 10,000 patients. The new project aims at educating and rehabilitating those patients who are capable of learning a trade, and releasing them to the care of the community.

Under the old system, those who entered the schools usually became permanent residents, causing overcrowding and a long waiting list.

Key purpose of the project is to encourage community responsibility for the retarded. The state schools will undergo a change in function, becoming education centers to prepare the retarded for a return to a sheltered life in their own community.

Illinois retarded children now must wait three to four years from the time of their enrollment until acceptance at the school. The new Centralia State School, opening in June of this year, will ease the problem somewhat, placing the emphasis on vocational and social training and research into the cause and prevention of retardation.

Dr. Baker noted that the Lake County Health Dept. is already offering nursing consultation to the parents of retarded children and plans to increase its service in this area.

Long Day For Election Judges On November 3

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 1.—Relief teams to count ballots cannot be used at the large election Nov. 3, next, to elect representatives in the General Assembly, Attorney General William G. Clark ruled today.

The statute, Clark's opinion said, does not authorize the appointment of relief counting units and "such relief units cannot be used."

The procedure in the knotty question of "continuous counting" of ballots at the election was outlined by Clark's opinion. This phrase, Clark's opinion said, means "that the counting station is not to be closed until the counting has been completed."

"It does not mean," Clark's opinion held, "that the counting units cannot take brief rest breaks."

Clark's opinion then stated: "The persons appointed to the counting units will begin their task at about 6:30 p.m. on November 3, 1944. They should be told in advance to report for work well rested. The length of time it will take to count the ballots is now purely speculative, and nothing definite can be known until the counting units or teams are actually at work. The statute makes no specific provision for long rest periods, however, if it should develop during the night that it is going to be physically impossible for all of the units to continue counting until the counting is completed, then in the discretion of the County Clerk or Board of Election Commissioners, it would be proper to have one-half of the units go home for a reasonable rest period which I consider to be 8 hours, and when they return, the other half go home for a similar rest. By doing this, there would not be any interruption in the counting."

FATAL ACCIDENTS HIT NEW HIGH IN LAKE CO.

Fatal accidents up to June 10, 1944, in Lake County, numbered 44, according to the Safety Commission. On this date in 1943 there were 20.

Howlett Tells Deal Of Special Session

Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, has published a statement of expenses of the special session of the 73rd Illinois General Assembly, which convened January 6, 1944, and adjourned January 28.

The total expenditure was $105,806.42.

Legislators are paid no extra salary for a special session. However, they receive $50 per session for incidental expenses and 10 cents a mile for one round trip per week between their homes and Springfield.

Mileage and incidental expenses of the legislators totaled $41,980.80. Senate employees engaged on a per diem basis were paid $17,988.00, and House of Representatives per diem employees $28,082.00. Officers of the Senate were paid $2,625.00, and officers of the House $1,828.50.

Other expenses included incidentals, stationery, printing and office supplies.

"When I install electric heat I guarantee low operating cost"

Harold Hensley, President of Hensley Electric Company, Chicago Heights

Harold Hensley's company has made more than 600 electric heat installations since 1958—and right now, Mr. Hensley is installing electric heat in another 628 homes under construction!

"Electric heat has really come of age," he says—and he backs up his conviction by offering to guarantee the monthly heating cost on every one of these homes.

Today, by helping supervise construction from the outset, Public Service Company applies vast experience to the solution of each new building problem. Moreover, electric heat is now a better buy than ever, because electric heat rates today are 50% lower than they were in 1958!

Electric heat is clean, safe, the most comfortable heat by far. Separate thermostats let you control the temperature room by room, in every room—for Mom in the kitchen, Dad in his shower, Baby playing on the floor. And because electric heat burns no fuel, there's nothing to create dirt, dust, and fumes. Walls, ceilings, curtains, and furniture stay clean longer. There's little or no maintenance.

If you'd like more information about electric heat—the only really modern heat—please call your nearest Public Service Company office.

20 Years Of GI Bill Benefits

Illinois Vets Have Received $1.6 Billion

(This article was taken from the Chicago Daily News dated 6/20/64)

20 YEARS OF GI BILL BENEFITS

Illinois Vets Have Received $1.6 Billion

Congress officially called it the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, but the people called it the GI Bill of Rights. Monday it will be 20 years old.

It was the granddaddy of all veterans' readjustment bills and sired additional legislation that eventually covered almost every aspect of a veteran's life, allowing him cash grants, loans to obtain a home, business, farm, education or training, medical benefits and others.

Illinoisans who spent at least 90 days in the armed forces during World War II received a total of $1,600,000,000 in benefits. More than 237,000 homes were bought in the state with GI loans. More than 452,000 Illinois veterans received education or job training. John S. Gleason, Jr., Administrator of Veterans' Affairs in Washington, estimated that 80% of the 886,000 of the 858,000 World War II veterans in Illinois received at least one of the three major benefits set up under the GI Bill.

About 540,000 jobless veterans in the state received $228,000,000 by joining the "52-20 Club", the bill provision that allowed veterans who were thrust back into an already crowded job market after the war to receive $20 cash grants for 52 weeks.

Self-employed veterans in Illinois drew $35,000,000 under the plan. Millions of veterans, however, never exhausted their full rights to the readjustment allowances, Gleason said. The average veteran was on the rolls for only 19 of the possible 52 weeks. The last self-employed payment was made in 1960. Last year, $349 was paid to jobless veterans under the bill's provisions.

The GI loan guaranty program was incorporated into the World War II GI Bill and extended in the Korean Bill primarily to provide desperately needed homes for the veterans. More than 237,000 veterans bought homes in Illinois with $2,299,079,342 in mortgages guaranteed by the Veterans Administration.

Under the same laws, the VA guaranteed more than 6,000 businesses and almost 2,000 farms in the state.

Gleason estimated that more than $1,343,000,000 was paid by the VA in Illinois for veterans' subsistence, tuition and other expenses connected with education or training. Gleason quoted a Census Bureau study which shows that the average male veteran is better educated, and earns more than non-veterans. He also pays higher taxes at a rate sufficient to pay back the entire amount he received under the Bill at least twice over in the course of his lifetime. — Chicago Daily News

Fourth Child
Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Povall of 1709 E. Fairfield Dr. on the birth of their second daughter and fourth child. Little Diane Margaret didn't arrive in the same manner as most babies do at Victory Memorial Hospital, June 26. She couldn't wait till her mother, Dolores, could get to the delivery room, and arrived in the elevator on the way up. For being in such a hurry, she was put in isolation for a day. She weighed in at 8 pounds, 8 ounces, after being born at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Marge Moffitt drove her to the hospital.

Welcoming their new sister Monday, were Gil, Jr., Donna and Greg.

New Citizen
July 2 was an important date to Mrs. Dale (Anna Marie) Jublin of 1918 E. Hazelwood Drive. On that day, she and 57 other persons became citizens of the United States, in a simple but impressive ceremony in the Lake County courthouse. The oath of allegiance was administered by Circuit Clerk Stephanie Sulthim. Bailiff was Deputy Luby Zupancic.

Two of the main speakers were Presiding Judge Minard Hulse and Joseph Emma, who became a citizen in 1924. Anna Marie has been a resident of the United States for five years. Last March she applied for citizenship and in April, took her examination. Her birthplace was Norway. She had planned to go back for a visit this summer, but since she is expecting her third child in August the trip has been postponed. She and her husband have two boys, Greg 3 and Dag 2. Her mother has visited her twice since she has been here.

Visiting Europe
Mrs. Ted (Mickey) Jedrzejewski and her daughter, Paula, 13, of Lake Villa, flew to Europe last week for a five week trip and hope to be home by August 7. They planned to celebrate the Fourth in Leicester, England. Although Mrs. Jedrzejewski hasn't any relatives in her ancestral home town of Derby, she wants her daughter to see the famous town, home of the Royal Crown China.

They will also visit nearby Holloway, where Mrs. Jedrzejewski's grandfather lived. Mrs. Jedrzejewski is leader of Girl Scout Troop 211 and her daughter Paula is a Girl Scout.

Citizen's Party Meeting
All residents are invited to attend the Lindenhurst Citizen's party meeting Sunday, July 12, at the B. J. Hooper School, starting at 3 p.m.

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will meet Thursday evening, July 9, at 8 p.m. in the Civic Center.

New Neighbors

Home on Leave
Rolf Westberg has been home on leave for the past three weeks. When he leaves this weekend he will be going to Puerto Rico. He had been stationed at Abilene, Texas. He spent a lot of his spare time working on his car while he was home.

Last week the Westberg family all drove up to Lena, Wis., from Friday to Sunday, to surprise Mrs. Westberg's sister, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, on her fiftieth birthday. Three other sisters and two brothers and their families also assembled there. The Johnsons own the Cedar Crest Turkey Ranch. George Hanson went with them.

Stillman Leads Pack In Feature Race At Wilmot

Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee, 1962 and 1963 Driving Champion of the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, returned to the scene of his many victories and won the 25 lap feature race over a field of drivers who might give him trouble if they could have made it around the second place car.

Terry Vaughn of Milwaukee rode the second spot, and held back Jim Olett, Herman Seamans, Billy Bohn and Bill Ansell. Finally Vaughn spun out and the group raced away after Stillman but by now he had a comfortable lead that lasted to the checkered flag.

The positions behind Stillman changed several times with Bill Bohn of Bristol finally taking second spot from Olett. Bill Ansell took and kept third, but Kenny Tolgan of Milwaukee moved from next to last starting spot to fourth by checkered flag time. Olett settled for fifth ahead of Jimmy Mitchell, Jim Lawrence and Ron Larson.

Greg Umick of North Chicago brought a new car to the track and won the first 10 lap race and then finished second behind Bill Strom in the semi-feature. Strom also won a heat, as did Jr. Dodd and Bill Ansell.

In the spectator car races drivers had more than the usual amount of mad tangles and crashes. However, everyone involved in a roll over or accident came out ok. Gill Reine of Woodstock took the lead away from Bill Swantz in the first heat for the win. Then Swantz came back and won the feature. Harold Gutchee of Kenosha won the second heat for spectator cars as he stayed out of trouble longest and fastest. Rodger Hagie, Dick Aissen, Joe Baulding and John Andree each had trouble negotiating the oval but came back to run in the feature.

The crowd of nearly 4000 fans enjoyed the Holiday night races and cheered each Wisconsin win as they pulled to within two wins of the Illinois drivers in a battle for whose drivers will win the most. Rodger Otto of Burlington continues to lead the modified point standings.

Blistering Pace Wins Sportsman's Feature

Saturday night race fans saw Odell Jones of Waukegan, set a blistering pace to win the late model Sportsman's feature at the New Waukegan Speedway.

Jones started well back in the 23 car field and maneuvered his car brilliantly past other drivers to take the checkered flag.

Earlier in the evening Jones took to the winner's circle for his fine win effort in the second heat race for late models.

First heat race went to Bob Hopkins in another fine race with Bob also coming from the back of the pack to take the flag.

In the team race Selzer's Service beat Highway Sales in a slam bang affair which left three cars running out of a field of eight starters.

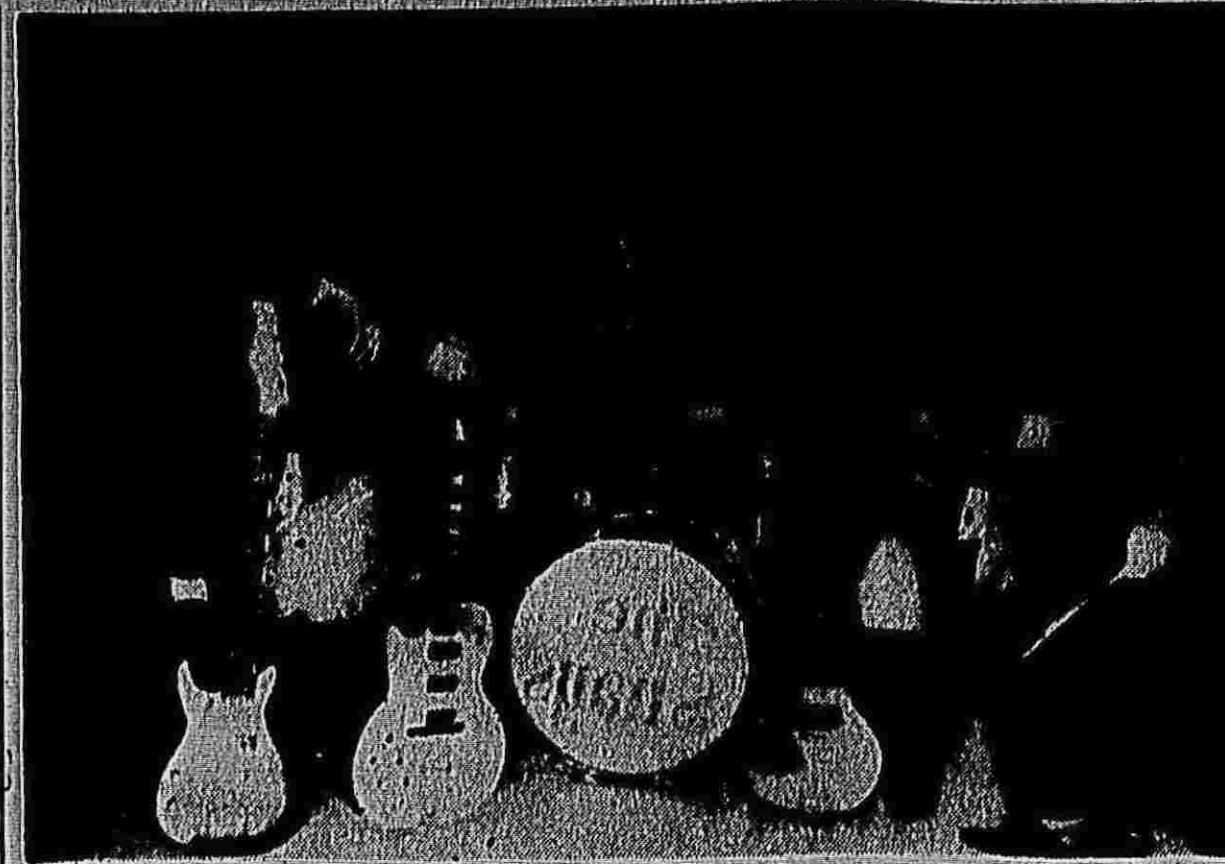

Jalopy events were plagued with roll-overs, including Bud Lule and Frank Decker, who both brought the crowd to their feet with automobile nonsense.

DEMOLITION CHAMPION
Frank the Wrecker Decker certainly lived up to his name by wrecking every car in sight in a demolition classic which left iron and debris scattered over the entire track. Frank piloted the same big Buick he rolled earlier to an undisputed win in which he totally demolished all other cars as well as his big Buick. However, the Buick still runs and Frank just might use it again next Saturday night in the first running of figure-eight racing.

FAST TRACK SUNDAY
Attendance was high and the track fast and race fans at the New Waukegan Speedway saw Geno Wagner pilot his Chevrolet powered modified to a clock busting feature win Sunday night.

Wagner lost control during time trials and hit the cement wall, causing extensive damage to the front end of the car. His excellent pit crew worked feverishly for two hours and put Geno out on the track in time for his feature win.

All other heat races were run in record time, with the

"Shays" A Hit At Roller Rink

The Shays, a combo made up of local boys of High School age, played at the Teen Dance at the Lake Region Roller Rink last Saturday.

Rick Janus, who plays the Melody Guitar, is from Camp Lake and goes to Wilmot

High School. The other three boys attend Antioch High School—Rick Erickson on the Lead Guitar (he's also the leader of the group), Bill Groeninger on the Bass Guitar, and Neil Taylor on the drums.

The boys scored such a hit on their first appearance that they will play at the Rink again this Saturday, July 4. They have been playing together for seven months and have had several engagements in Wilmot and Twin Lakes.

Tips From The Tackle Box

SECRET WEAPON FOR FLY FISHERMEN

THERE ARE TIMES when fish aren't interested in flies, yet you can still stir up action if you tote along a few of the tiny metal lures now made for ultra light spinning. These miniature lures are deadly fish getters, yet so light that they handle easily on a fly rod. You can cast and retrieve them as you would a streamer or wet fly, but it's even better to let the current do the job for you. Here's how.

Wade to mid stream at the head of any long bouncing run, and start working your lure against the current directly below you. Give it a series of short twitches, then pay out a few feet of line and repeat. Continue the process for as far as the current will carry your lure. This may be the full length of your fly line, plus considerable backing. Let the lure down the run very slowly, twitching it at least a dozen times to each spot before feeding the next bit of slack.

This presentation achieves the ultimate in temptation for unique reasons. Normally you must provoke fish into chasing after a lure, but note that here the reverse is true. Since fish face upstream, they see your struggling lure gradually swept closer by the current, and this seemingly happy circumstance promptly arouses their predatory instinct. They wait expectantly until your lure is carried practically into their maw—and then wham! It's a very neat gambit, and you'll find that plenty of sophisticated fish will fall for it when you add it to your bag of tricks.

These midget lures are great for fly rod trolling, early season fishing and other needs. They're better insurance than the traditional can of worms, so tuck a few in your fishing vest the next time you go fishing.

Any fishing questions? Send them to me, in care of this newspaper.

KEEPING LIVE BAIT LIVELY

Oddly enough, one of the secrets of keeping bait alive is to store it in some material other than that in which it normally lives. Take night-crawlers, for instance. Death rates usually soar when you try to keep these big worms in a tub of soil. Much better is to store your supply of nightcrawlers in a tub, box or other container, filled with, of all things, dry leaves. There's just one simple trick to it: Sprinkle the leaves lightly with water daily. Evaporation will keep the crawlers cool and comfortable. They'll eat the leaves, and stay alive indefinitely.

Or take hellgrammites, the bass fisherman's favorite bait. These big larvae live under rocks in the riffles of streams, yet it's very difficult to keep them alive in water without special facilities. Instead, fill your container half full with well rotted wood and bark. Crumble this material, but leave it coarse enough so that the bait can crawl freely between the chunks. Keep the wood damp, but never let it become soaked. A wrung out burlap bag draped over the top will keep the contents cool. Hellgrammites cared for in this way will remain alive for months.

Crayfish also live in water, but the best way to keep a stock of this reliable bait alive is to store it in damp, loose bedding. Rotted wood, sphagnum moss, decomposed leaves or matted green twigs will furnish suitable bedding material. Keep the bedding moist, but not wet, and cover with dampened burlap for a cooling effect. Crayfish are not as hardy as hellgrammites, but they'll live for a substantial period.

Minnows are an exception, of course, for they must be kept in water. But, if your wife consents, try this: build a small cage of wire screen and hang it in the water tank of your bathroom facility. The caged minnows will have their bad moments, but they'll survive. Any fishing questions? Send them to me, in care of this newspaper.

Golf

By Dan Coleman, Head Pro MIDLANE FARM COUNTRY CLUB
Wadsworth, Illinois
GOING THROUGH THE BALL

In going through the ball from the top of the backswing, the hips activate the entire body and therefore the club; the left hip begins the downswing from the top of the backswing. It is followed by the left arm, the hands and the club head. As the movement continues, the weight of the body begins to shift to the left foot; meanwhile, the hips keep turning, the club keeps descending and swinging on through until your weight is completely on the left foot. At the finish of the swing, you should be facing the green, standing firmly on your left foot. Also, the left elbow should be directly below the club and the club shaft parallel with the ground.

At this point, let's talk a little bit about "wrist action"—and then forget it! Wrist action in a good golf swing is the RESULT of good body action and general swing. Consciously, inserting "wrist action"—or your interpretation of it—into the golf swing can upset everything you've learned and ruin your disposition!

20 Years Of GI Bill Benefits

Illinois Vets Have Received $1.6 Billion

(This article was taken from the Chicago Daily News dated 6/20/64)

20 YEARS OF GI BILL BENEFITS

Illinois Vets Have Received $1.6 Billion

Congress officially called it the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, but the people called it the GI Bill of Rights. Monday it will be 20 years old.

It was the granddaddy of all veterans' readjustment bills and sired additional legislation that eventually covered almost every aspect of a veteran's life, allowing him cash grants, loans to obtain a home, business, farm, education or training, medical benefits and others.

Illinoisans who spent at least 90 days in the armed forces during World War II received a total of $1,600,000,000 in benefits. More than 237,000 homes were bought in the state with GI loans. More than 452,000 Illinois veterans received education or job training. John S. Gleason, Jr., Administrator of Veterans' Affairs in Washington, estimated that 80% of the 888,000 of the 858,000 World War II veterans in Illinois received at least one of the three major benefits set up under the GI Bill.

About 540,000 jobless veterans in the state received $228,000,000 by joining the "52-20 Club," the bill provision that allowed veterans who were thrust back into an already crowded job market after the war to receive $20 cash grants for 52 weeks.

Self-employed veterans in Illinois drew $35,000,000 under the plan. Millions of veterans, however, never exhausted their full rights to the readjustment allowances, Gleason said. The average veteran was on the rolls for only 19 of the possible 52 weeks. The last self-employed payment was made in 1960. Last year, $349 was paid to jobless veterans under the bill's provisions.

Ford Salesmen Take Part In Contest

L. A. Ryan and W. P. Lyons, of Lyons & Ryan Ford Sales, 939 Main St., Antioch, today announced their sales force is competing in the $40,000 Mustang Handicap, largest sales contest ever staged by the Chicago district of Ford Division, Ford Motor Company.

"Our sales manager and salesmen have their eyes on a total of 70 prizes in all," the dealers said. "Our sales manager has a chance to win $1,000 cash and the top performing salesman can win himself a new Mustang."

D. O. Wiggins, Chicago district sales manager, explained the contest. "The event began June 21 and will end July 31," he said. "We have divided the 86 dealers participating in the Big Change advertising and sales promotion campaign into seven groups."

"The sales manager of the top dealership in each group has a chance to win $1,000 and the top salesman a new Mustang."

Mr. Wiggins noted, "This Mustang Handicap is by far the most extensive sales contest the Chicago district of Ford Division has undertaken."

Fourth Child

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Povallits of 1709 E. Fairfield Dr. on the birth of their second daughter and fourth child, Little Diane Margaret didn't arrive in the same manner as most babies do at Victory Memorial Hospital, June 26. She couldn't wait till her mother, Dolores, could get to the delivery room, and arrived in the elevator on the way up. For being in such a hurry, she was put in isolation for a day. She weighed in at 8 pounds, 8 ounces, after being born at 9:30 a.m. Mrs. Marge Moffitt drove her to the hospital. Welcoming their new sister Monday, were Gil, Jr., Donna and Greg.

New Citizen

July 2 was an important date to Mrs. Dale (Anna Marie) Juhlin of 1918 E. Hazelwood Drive. On that day, she and 57 other persons became citizens of the United States, in a simple but impressive ceremony in the Lake County courthouse. The oath of allegiance was administered by Circuit Clerk Stephanie Suthlin. Bailiff was Deputy Luby Zupancic.

Two of the main speakers were Presiding Judge Minard Hulse and Joseph Emma, who became a citizen in 1924.

Anna Marie has been a resident of the United States for five years. Last March she applied for citizenship and in April, took her examination. Her birthplace was Norway. She had planned to go back for a visit this summer, but since she is expecting her third child in August the trip has been postponed. She and her husband have two boys, Greg 3 and Dag 2. Her mother has visited her twice since she has been here.

Visiting Europe

Mrs. Ted (Mickey) Jedrzewski and her daughter, Paula, 13, of Lake Villa, flew to Europe last week for a five week trip and hope to be home by August 7. They planned to celebrate the Fourth in Leicester, England. Although Mrs. Jedrzewski hasn't any relatives in her ancestral home town of Derby, she wants her daughter to see the famous town, home of the Royal Crown China.

They will also visit nearby Holloway, where Mrs. Jedrzewski's grandfather lived.

Mrs. Jedrzewski is leader of Girl Scout Troop 211 and her daughter Paula is a Girl Scout.

Citizen's Party Meeting

All residents are invited to attend the Lindenhurst Citizen's party-meeting Sunday, July 12, at the B. J. Hooper School, starting at 3 p.m.

Woman's Club Meeting

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will meet Thursday evening, July 9, at 8 p.m. in the Civic Center.

New Neighbors

A cordial welcome is extended to Roy and Geraldine Taylor. They are renting the home at 2124 Burr Oak Lane. They formerly lived on the far south side of Chicago.

The young couple were married April 11. Geraldine's parents, Charles and LaVergne Vallee, have a summer home on Channel Lake near Antioch. Roy works for King Loan in Libertyville and his hobby is water skiing.

Visitors Mrs. Mike Pechous of Round Lake and her daughter ter, Mrs. Merle Holtdorf of Grayslake, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Ed Bernau last Wednesday.

New Baby

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes, 67 Himber Lane on the birth of their son, James Drew, on June 20, at Victory Memorial Hospital. The young man weighed in at 7 pounds, 6 1/2 ounces. He has a big sister, Lisa Gay, 2 1/2 years old.

St. Mark Lutheran Church

St. Mark Lutheran Church will hold their annual parish picnic at Lutherdale Bible Camp on Sunday, July 19. There will be neither Sunday School nor Worship Services at St. Mark's on that day. Parishioners are asked to attend the worship services at the Chapel in Lutherdale at 11 a.m.

Everyone is asked to bring their own picnic dinner. Coffee will be provided. Meals will be eaten in the dining room, but will not be shared as a pot luck this year. Parishioners are asked to bring a generous dinner so that they may share with the workers there.

Family Bible Camp was held at Lutherdale July 5-10. Flowers for the church last Sunday were provided by Mr. and Mrs. William Scarseth in recognition of their tenth wedding anniversary.

Prince of Peace Church

The Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion Sunday, July 12, at the 8 o'clock mass. Communion intention: For the Nation's Welfare.

The Altar and Rosary Sodality will hold their annual Salad Bar luncheon and card party in the parish hall on Wednesday, July 15, starting at 12 noon. Mrs. Mary Capon and Mrs. June Knell are co-chairmen.

The CYO Club is planning a baseball trip to the Milwaukee Stadium on Tuesday, July 28 to see the Milwaukee vs. Cincinnati game. Reservations must be made as soon as possible.

The parish picnic will be held August 16 on the school grounds.

Home on Leave

Rolf Westberg has been home on leave for the past three weeks. When he leaves this weekend he will be going to Puerto Rico. He had been stationed at Abilene, Texas. He spent a lot of his spare time working on his car, while he was home.

Last week the Westberg family all drove up to Lena, Wis., from Friday to Sunday, to surprise Mrs. Westberg's sister, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, on her fiftieth birthday. Three other sisters and two brothers and their families also assembled there. The Johnsons own the Cedar Crest Turkey Ranch. George Hansen went with them.

Stillman Leads Pack In Feature Race At Wilmot

Eddie Stillman of Milwaukee, 1962 and 1963 Driving Champion of the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot, returned to the scene of his many victories and won the 25 lap feature race over a field of drivers who might give him trouble if they could have made it around the second place car.

Terry Vaughn of Milwaukee rode the second spot and held back Jim Olett, Herman Seamans, Billy Bohn and Bill Ansell. Finally Vaughn spun out and the group raced away after Stillman but by now he had a comfortable lead that lasted to the checkered flag.

The positions behind Stillman changed several times with Bill Bohn of Bristol finally taking second spot from Olett. Bill Ansell took and kept third, but Kenny Tolugan of Milwaukee moved from next to last starting spot to fourth by checkered flag time. Olett settled for fifth ahead of Jimmy Mitchell, Jini Lawrence and Ron Larson.

Greg Umick of North Chicago brought a new car to the track and won the first 10 lap race and then finished second behind Bill Strom in the semi-feature. Strom also won a heat, as did Jr. Dodd and Bill Ansell.

In the spectator car races drivers had more than the usual amount of mad tangles and crashes. However, everyone involved in a roll over or accident came out ok. Gill Reine of Woodstock took the lead away from Bill Swantz in the first heat for the win. Then Swantz came back and won the feature. Harold Gutchee of Kenosha won the second heat for spectator cars as he stayed out of trouble longest and fastest. Rodger Hagle, Dick Alsen, Joe Baulding and John Anderlee each had trouble negotiating the oval but came back to run in the feature.

The crowd of nearly 4000 fans enjoyed the Holiday night races and cheered each Wisconsin win as they pulled to within two wins of the Illinois drivers in a battle for whose drivers will win the most. Rodger Otto of Burlington continues to lead the modified point standings.

Blistering Pace Wins Sportsmans Feature

Saturday night race fans saw Odell Jones of Waukegan, set a blistering pace to win the late model Sportsman feature at the New Waukegan Speedway.

Jones started well back in the 23 car field and maneuvered his car brilliantly past other drivers to take the checkered flag.

Earlier in the evening Jones took to the winner's circle for his fine win effort in the second heat race for late models.

First heat race went to Bob Hopkins in another fine race with Bob also coming from the back of the pack to take the flag.

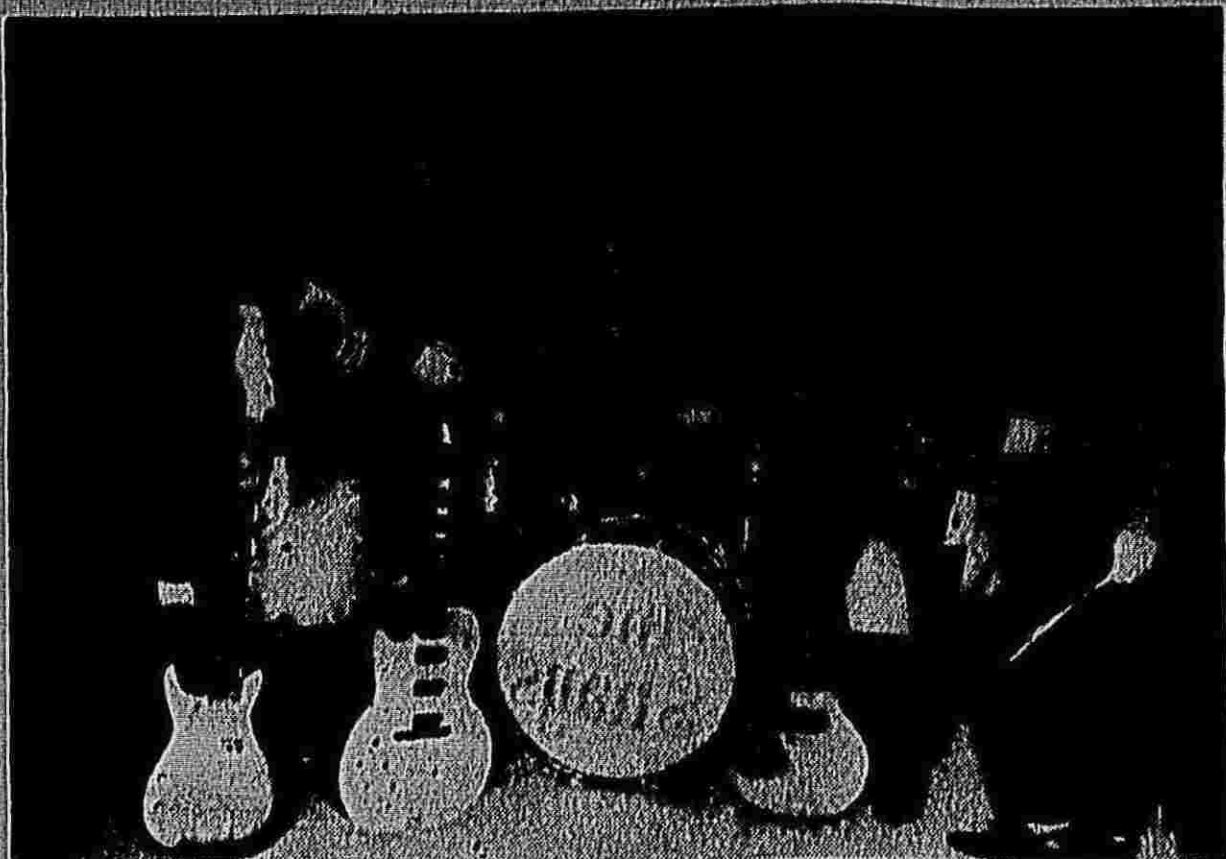

In the team race Selzer's Service beat Highway Sales in a slam bang affair, which left three cars running out of a field of eight starters. Jalopy events were plagued with roll-overs, including Bud Lule and Frank Decker, who both brought the crowd to their feet with automobile nonsense.

DEMOLITION CHAMPION
Frank the Wrecker Decker certainly lived up to his name by wrecking every car in sight in a demolition classic which left iron and debris scattered over the entire track. Frank piloted the same big Buick he rolled earlier to an undisputed win in which he totally demolished all other cars as well as his big Buick. However, the Buick still runs and Frank just might use it again next Saturday night in the first running of figure-eight racing.

FAST TRACK SUNDAY
Attendance was high and the track fast and race fans at the New Waukegan Speedway saw Geno Wagner pilot his Chevrolet powered modified to a clock busting feature win Sunday night.

Wagner lost control during time trials and hit the cement wall, causing extensive damage to the front end of the car. His excellent pit crew worked feverishly for two hours and put Geno out on the track in time for his feature win.

All other heat races were run in record time, with the

"Shays" A Hit At Roller Rink

The Shays, a combo made up of local boys of High School age, played at the Teen Dance at the Lake Region Roller Rink last Saturday.

Rick Janus, who plays the Melody Guitars, is from Camp Lake and goes to Wilmot

High School. The other three boys attend Antioch High School—Rick Erickson on the Lead Guitar (he's also the leader of the group), Bill Groeninger on the Bass Guitar, and Neil Taylor on the drums.

The boys scored such a hit on their first appearance that they will play at the Rink again this Saturday, July 4. They have been playing together for seven months and have had several engagements in Wilmot and Twin Lakes.

Tips From The Tackle Box

SECRET WEAPON FOR FLY FISHERMEN

THERE ARE TIMES when fish aren't interested in flies, yet you can still stir up action if you tote along a few of the tiny metal lures now made for ultra light spinning. These miniature lures are deadly fish-getters, yet so light that they handle easily on a fly rod. You can cast and retrieve them as you would a streamer or wet fly, but it's even better to let the current do the job for you. Here's how.

Wade to mid stream at the head of any long bouncing run, and start working your lure against the current directly below you. Give it a series of short twitches, then pay out a few feet of line and repeat. Continue the process for as far as the current will carry your lure. This may be the full length of your fly line, plus considerable backing. Let the lure down the run very slowly, twitching it at least a dozen times to each spot before feeding the next bit of slack.

This presentation achieves the ultimate in temptation for unique reasons. Normally you must provoke fish into chasing after a lure, but note that here the reverse is true. Since fish face upstream, they see your struggling lure gradually swept closer by the current, and this seemingly happy circumstance promptly arouses their predatory instinct. They wait expectantly until your lure is carried practically into their maw—and then wham! It's a very neat gambit, and you'll find that plenty of sophisticated fish will fall for it when you add it to your bag of tricks.

These midsize lures are great for fly rod trolling, early season fishing and other needs. They're better insurance than the traditional can of worms, so tuck a few in your fishing vest the next time you go fishing.

KEEPING LIVE BAIT LIVELY

Oddly enough, one of the secrets of keeping bait alive is to store it in some material other than that in which it normally lives. Take night-crawlers, for instance. Death rates usually soar when you try to keep these big worms in a tub of soil. Much better is to store your supply of night-crawlers in a tub, box or other container, filled with all things, dry leaves! There's just one simple trick to it: Sprinkle the leaves lightly with water daily. Evaporation will keep the crawlers cool and comfortable. They'll eat the leaves and stay alive indefinitely.

Or take hellgrammites, the bass fisherman's favorite bait. These big larvae live under rocks in the riffles of streams, yet it's very difficult to keep them alive in water without special facilities. Instead, fill your container half full with well rotted wood and bark. Crumble this material, but leave it coarse enough so that the bait can crawl freely between the chunks. Keep the wood damp, but never let it become soaked. A wrung out burlap bag draped over the top will keep the contents cool. Hellgrammites cared for in this way will remain alive for months.

Crayfish also live in water, but the best way to keep a stock of this reliable bait alive is to store it in damp, loose bedding. Rotted wood, sphagnum moss, decomposed leaves or matted green twigs will furnish suitable bedding material. Keep the bedding moist, but not wet, and cover with dampened burlap for a cooling effect. Crayfish are not as hardy as hellgrammites, but they'll live for a substantial period.

Minnows are an exception, of course, for they must be kept in water. But, if your wife consents, try this: build a small cage of wire screen and hang it in the water tank of your bathroom facility. The caged minnows will have their bad moments, but they'll survive! Any fishing questions? Send them to me, in care of this newspaper.

GOING THROUGH THE BALL

In going through the ball from the top of the backswing, the hips activate the entire body and therefore the club; the left hip begins the downswing from the top of the backswing. It is followed by the left arm, the hands and the club head. As the movement continues, the weight of the body begins to shift to the left foot; meanwhile, the hips keep turning, the club keeps descending and swinging on through until your weight is completely on the left foot. At the finish of the swing, you should be facing the green, standing firmly on your left foot. Also, the left elbow should be directly below the club and the club shaft parallel with the ground.

At this point, let's talk a little bit about "wrist action"—and then forget it! Wrist action in a good golf swing is the RESULT of good body action and general swing. Consciously inserting "wrist action"—or your interpretation of it—into the golf swing can upset everything you've learned and ruin your disposition!

Allendale Has New Director

Richard A. Leavell, 43, formerly of Warren, Michigan, began his duties as the new director of Allendale School for Boys, Lake Villa, last week. Mr. Leavell became the fourth director in the school's 67 year history and replaces Clare Appleby who retired after 14 years of service at Allendale.

The new director was principal of Rinke School in Warren, Michigan and holds degrees from Johns Hopkins University and from the University of Michigan in educational psychology and administration. In addition to extensive experience in teaching and school administration, Mr. Leavell has worked with disturbed children at M.P.I. Children's Service, University of Michigan Hospital. He is married and has four children. The Leavell family will live at Big Trees Farm, the director's home owned by Allendale several blocks from the campus in Lake Villa.

Allendale School for Boys, founded in 1897 is a year around home and school for dependent boys who need group living care, special education and supportive help of casework, psychology and psychiatry. Boys of all races, creeds and religions, who are unable to get along in a community setting due to inadequate homes, school problems and other non-organic problems live on the 125 acre campus 50 miles northwest of Chicago and 15 miles west of Waukegan. Boys range in age from 8 to 18 and the average stay is 2 1/2 years.

Allendale is a private agency, incorporated as the Allendale Association in 1897 not-for-profit and licensed to serve 82 boys by the State Department of Children and Family Services. Boys from throughout the Greater Chicago Metropolitan area may be admitted regardless of ability to pay. Families do pay what they can, but the greatest share of financial support comes from contributions and the Community Fund of Chicago.

Mr. Leavell will administer the activities of 48 staff members and a facility of 23 buildings. The annual budget will reach $308,500 in 1964. Future plans for the agency
